

LOWER ST. JOHNS RIVER TAC MEETING
Thursday, July 26, 2012
10:00 AM – 1:30 PM
Jacksonville Service Office—St. Johns River Water Management
District

~Note location change to SJRWMD/no longer at the FDEP building~
Cypress and Maple Conference Rooms
7775 Baymeadows Way, Suite 102 (Reflections Office Complex)
Jacksonville, FL 32256

AGENDA

- 10:00 AM Welcome and Introductions, Jim Maher, FDEP
- Review and comments on the July 15, 2011 meeting summary
- 10:10 AM Establishment of the LSJ Environmental Events Database & River Report Digital Archive – Stuart Chalk, University of North Florida
- 10:30 AM Pre and Post Georgia-Pacific Pipeline Biological Community Monitoring—
Towns Burgess & Tim Gross, Environmental Resource Consultants
- 11:15 PM Effects of Freshwater Discharge on the Relative Abundance and Distribution of Fishes in the St. Johns River—Steven J. Miller, SJRWMD
- 12:00 PM Lunch Break (bring your lunch or select a local establishment for carry out)
- 12:30 PM Spatio-Temporal Patterns of Recruitment, Abundance, and Habitat Utilization by Southern Kingfish (Menticirrhus americanus) in the Estuaries of Northeast Florida – Anthony DiGirolamo, FMRI
- 1:00 PM Technical Updates and Announcements
- Environmental Events Coordination Update—John Hendrickson
 - Other Member Updates
 - Next Meeting Date—October 2012, Host: Jacksonville University
- 1:30 PM Adjourn

Contact Phone Numbers

Tiffany Busby, TAC Facilitator, 904-806-1550 (cell)
SJRWMD-Jacksonville Service Office, 904-730-6270

LSJR TAC Website: <http://www.lsjr.org/>